Erreurs monumentales commises par RIVIERE
relatives aux origines de la famille PILLOT

---:---:---:---:---:---

I.- Jean PILLOT et Marguerite BURJAUD auraient bien eu 4 enfants:

- A/- Annibal, je reviendrai à son sujet au § III.
- B/- André, dont je parlerai un peu plus loin, § II.
- C/- Pierre, né en 1643, marié à Mauze le 31 janvier 1672 à Marie HENRY. (assistaient au mariage célébré par Mr. de la FOREST: Jean PILLOT, frère de l'époux, Charles PILLOT et Annibal PILLOT). Rivière prétend que c'est Jean qui épousa Marie HENRY le 5 mai 1677.
- D/- Jean, né en 1645, marié à Mauzé le 5 mai 1677 à Marie BURJAUD (assistaient au mariage célébré par Mr. de la FOREST: Annibal PILLOT et Jean BURJAUD, frère et beau-frère) Rivière prétend que c'est un certain Simon-Jean - qui n'a jamais existé - qui aurait pris pour épouse Marie BURJAUD le 31 janvier 1672.

II.- RIVIERE n'apporte aucune preuve qu'André PILLOT soit le fils de Jean PILLOT et de Marguerite BURJAUD.

Cependant, étant donné que son fils Antoine PILLOT (voir § V) assiste au mariage de Jean GUIONNET et de Jeanne PILLOT (27 septembre 1701) et qu'Antoine figure sur l'acte comme étant le cousin germain de l'épouse, il y a tout lieu de croire qu'André PILLOT, marié à Elisabeth MICOU, soit bien effectivement le fils de Jean PILLOT et de Marguerite BURJAUD et que ce fait il est bien le frère d'Annibal PILLOT.

III.- Annibal PILLOT, fils de Jean PILLOT et de Marguerite BURJAUD, né en 1628, épousa Catherine BURJAUD, dont il eut 4 enfants:

- A/- Jacob, dont je reparlerai au § IV.
- B/- Jeanne, qui épousa à Mauzé le 19 février 1689 (et non le 14 comme l'écrit RIVIERE) Jean BURJAUD.
Puis en secondes nocces, à Mauzé, le 26 septembre 1701, Jean GUIONNET RIVIERE prétend que c'est Marie PILLOT qui se maria à Jean GUIONNET
- C/- Marie, sur laquelle je n'ai aucun renseignement.
- D/- Annibal, né vers 1662, décédé à Mauzé le 9 novembre 1687, âgé de 25 ans, dont ne parle pas RIVIERE.

IV.- Jacob PILLOT, fils d'Annibal PILLOT et de Catherine BURJAUD, né en 1659 épousa le 20 août 1684 au Temple de Mauzé Jeanne GALLAUDET, fille de Thomas GALLAUDET et de Léa RINGLER (et non d'Isaac GALLAUDET et de Mari JOUSSEAUME comme le prétend encore RIVIERE). Léa RINGLER figure déjà comme témoin au mariage de Jeanne PILLOT avec Jean BURJAUD le 19 février 1689.

V.- Antoine PILLOT, fils d'André PILLOT et d'Elisabeth MICOU, épouse bien en secondes nocces Marguerite PILLOT, fille de défunt Jean PILLOT et de Marie BURJAUD le 12 février 1703 (et non Marie Madeleine GUIONNET le 15 novembre 1713, dicit RIVIERE).

VI.- Antoine PILLOT, fils d'Antoine PILLOT et de Jeanne BURJAUD, baptisé le 27 décembre 1693 épousa Marie Madeleine GUIONNET le 15 novembre 1713 (et non Marguerite PILLOT le 12 février 1703. A cette date, il n'était âgé que de 10 ans. De plus les actes de mariage sont là. RIVIERE a donc marié défunt Antoine à la place de son fils Antoine./.

Ce ne sont là que les erreurs relevées dès le début de la généalogie PILLOT dressée par RIVIERE. Il y en a beaucoup d'autres que j'ai notées, mais j'y reviendrai une autre fois./.

Colonel Georges PILLOT-BEAURETOUR

113, rue Lesbroussart

(Belgique)

BRUXELLES

Bruxelles, le 17 janvier 1957.

Bien cher Cousin,

Je m'excuse de vous écrire à la machine, mais j'écris tellement mal que je crains que vous ne puissiez me lire autrement.

J'ai relevé des erreurs phénoménales de RIVIERE dans la généalogie des PILLOT et des GALLAUDET. Je vous joins mes premières constatations. J'en ai notées d'autres, mais, je tiens à ce que mes corrections sans autre prétention qu'une simple mise au point, soient faites dans un ordre chronologiques

Pour ce qui nous concerne mutuellement, j'ai la copie intégrale et certifiée de nombreuses fois que Jeanne GALLAUDET, épouse de Jacob PILLOT, sieur de BEAURETOUR était bien la fille de Thomas GALLAUDET et de Léa RINGLE et non d'Isaac GALLAUDET et de Marie JOUSSEAUME. J'ai une importante correspondance échangée avec l'Archiviste en Chef des Archives Départementales des Deux Sèvres qui me prouve nettement, sans ambiguïté cette affirmation.

En ce qui concerne la branche qui m'intéresse, il n'y a que cette erreur qui ne me touche que moyennement.

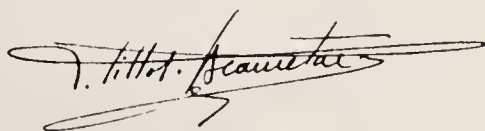

J'avise d'ailleurs par le même courrier notre cousin Georges PILLOT, brasseur à MONTMORILLON par SAULGE (Vienne). Il doit prendre sa retraite et se retirera à LA ROCHELLE. Il a maintenant 72 ans et veut jouir des années qui lui restent à vivre. Apparemment, il se porte bien, je viens d'ailleurs de recevoir des nouvelles de sa famille. Il a un fils qui est au MAROC et je craignais qu'il ne lui soit arrivé quelque chose de fâcheux avec les événements qui se sont déroulés à MARRAKECH. Heureusement il est indemne ainsi que sa Femme et ses enfants.

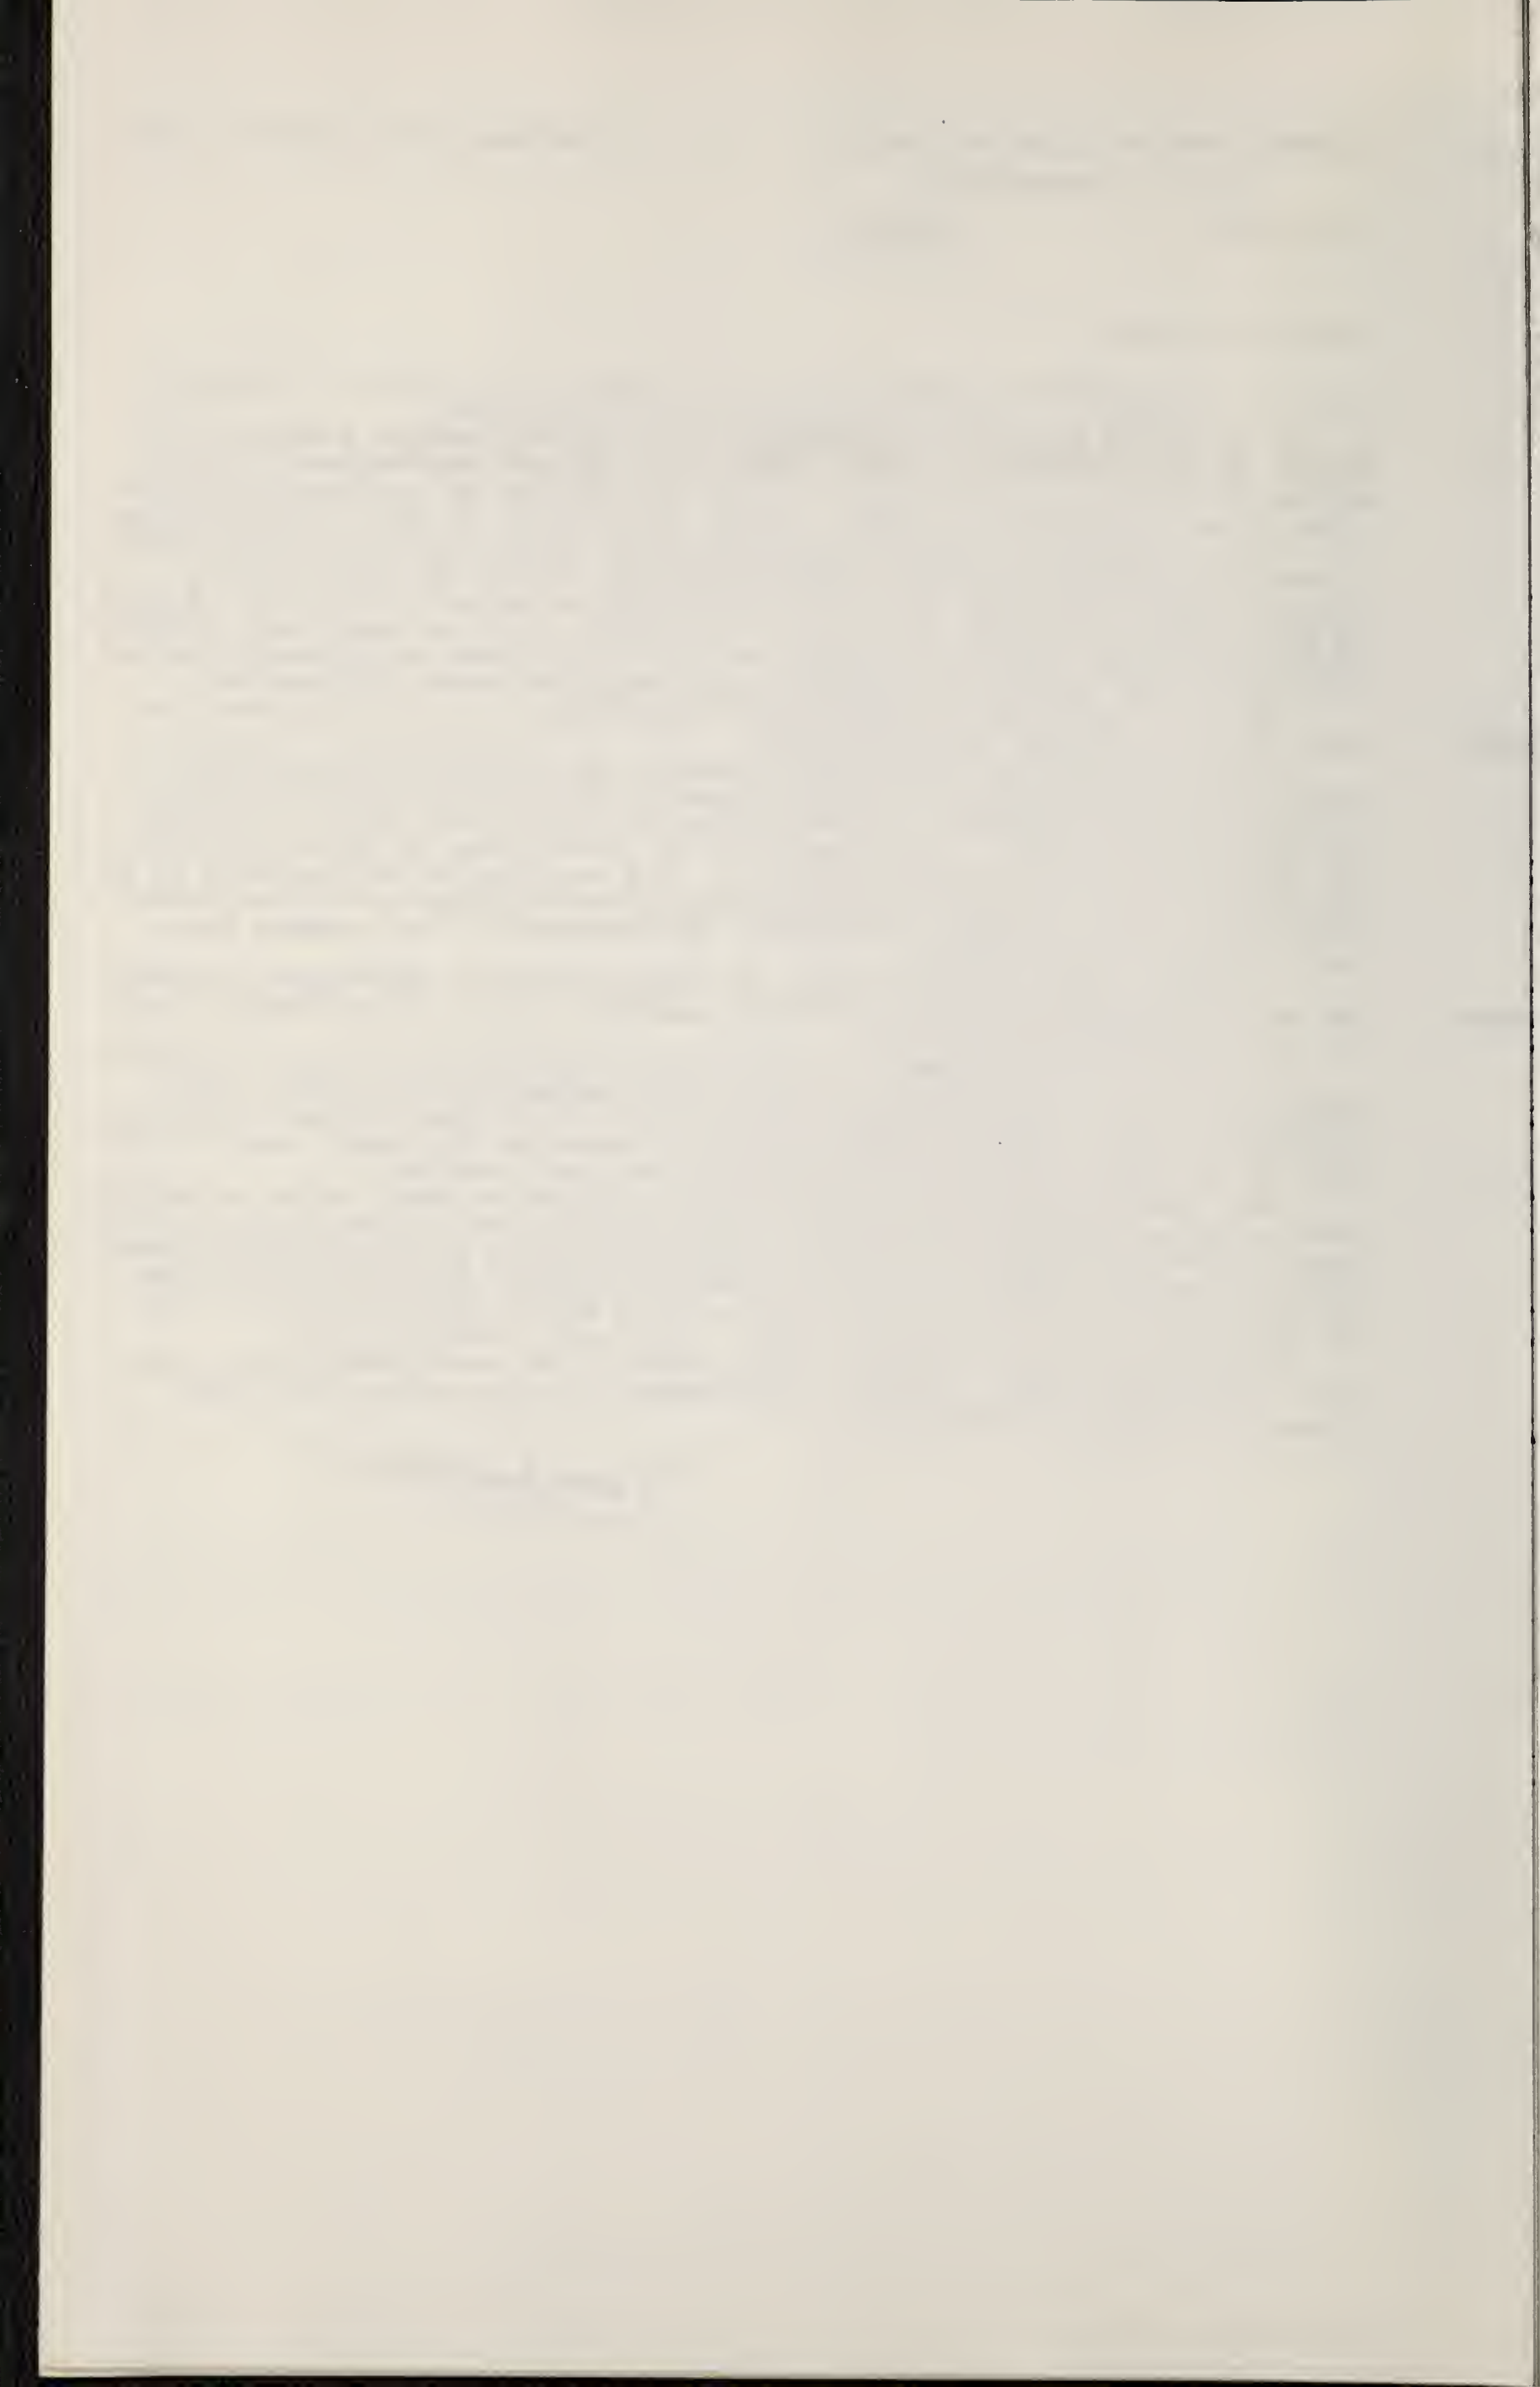

Je serais très désireux d'avoir en communication la généalogie des GALLAUDET et des PRIOLEAU que vous me dites remontées jusqu'au Xème siècle. C'est un beau travail de patience!!!!

Si j'en crois la presse, il fait horriblement froid aux U.S.A. actuellement: - 49°, c'est épouvantable. Si pareille température survenait soit à BRUXELLES, soit à PARIS lorsque je m'y trouve, soyez bien persuadé que je ne mettrais pas le nez dehors. Mais peut-être êtes-vous déjà parti vers la CAROLINE où il fait certainement une température plus clémente.

Nous sommes heureux d'apprendre votre décision de venir enfin en EUROPE. Vous qui vous intéressez beaucoup à l'aristocratie, vous devez savoir que le Comte de PARIS, l'héritier vient de marier sa seconde fille à un jeune noble belge et que en juillet, ce sera le tour de son fils aîné de convoler avec une princesse du Wurtemberg. Quand à sa fille aînée: ISABELLE, elle reste en plan. Fera-t-elle une vieille fille ? Elle est cependant jolie;

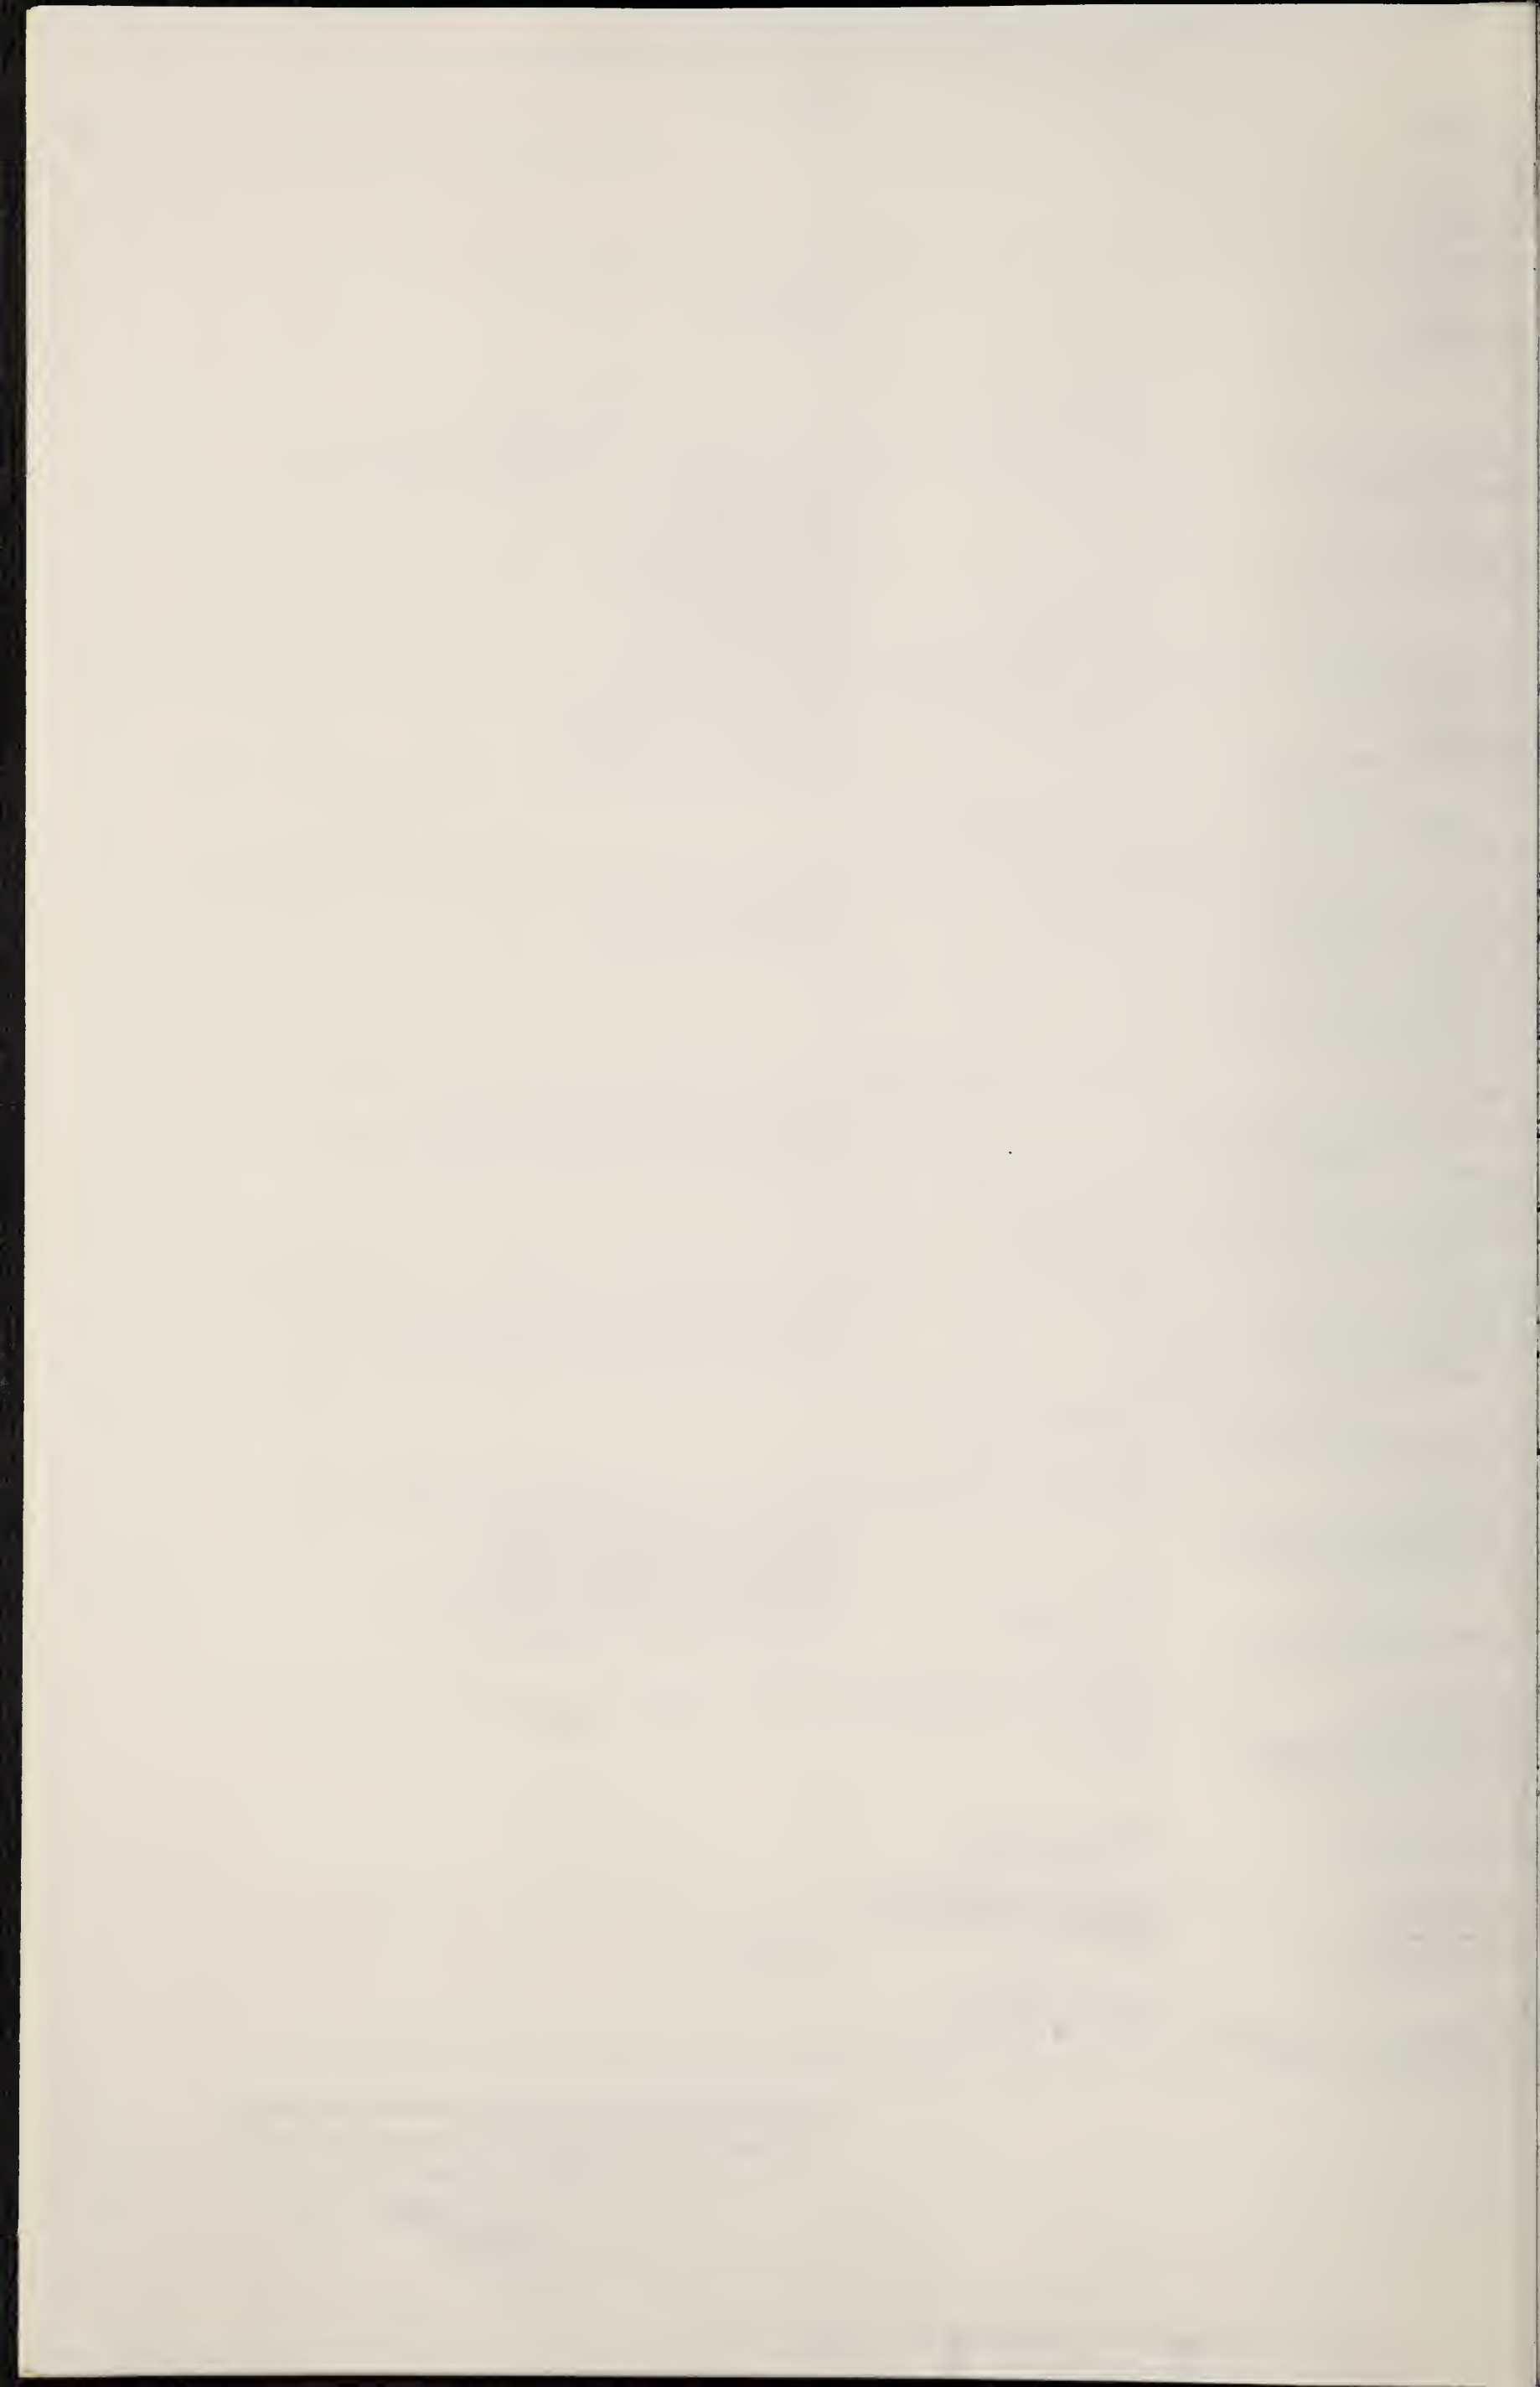

Espérant que cette lettre ne vous trouvera pas entièrement gelé, mais bien en parfaite santé, avec mes compliments, je vous assure, bien cher Cousin, de toute mon affection.

 establishment Bishop Cheverus had of himself contributed in 1817. (the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston who had baptized Laurent Clerc's son Francis Joseph Clerc on his first visit to Hartford in 1823.) When about a year old, Laurent Clerc writes: "Having been left alone for a few minutes on a chair by the fireside it happened that I fell into the fire and so badly burned my right cheek that the scar of it is still visible; and my parents were under the impression that the accident deprived me of my senses of hearing and smelling", at the age of twelve Laurent Clerc was taken to Paris and placed under the care of the Abbe Sicard (Sicard was the successor of the Abbe De l'Epee, who according to Clerc "had invented the art of restoring deaf mutes to Society and religion" It was the Abbe Sicard however who gave solidarity and permanence to the system of the Abbe de l'Epee) When THOMAS HOPKINS GALLAUDET went to Europe to fit himself to conduct the Hartford Asylum, he found the Abbe Sicard's methods the most satisfactory. He studied under the Abbe, and CLERC one of his most brilliant pupils, who was now professor at the Paris Institute. DR. GALLAUDET AND CLERC made a compact whereby the young professor was to come to Hartford and take a chair at the New Asylum. The Abbe Sicard who was well advanced in years, was reluctant to consent, but finally yielded under certain conditions. In the contract drawn up between DR. GALLAUDET and LAURENT CLERC, it is stipulated (the original contract still exists at Paris) Article XI "He, (Laurent Clerc) is not to be called upon to teach anything contrary to the Roman Catholic Religion" and thus the Abbe Sicard wrote to Bishop Cheverus of Boston. His mother also urged him to remain in France, but eventually gave her consent. Long before Bishop Cheverus baptized his son (in 1823) his father under DR. GALLAUDET'S INFLUENCE had broken with the church. The men and women with whom CLERC'S lot was cast in America had far more respect for the skills of the Abbe, and his favorite pupil in giving speech to the dumb, than for their manner of giving glory to God"

(now comprised of a part of Bulloch, and Bryan Counties) unmarried, and the heirs of his brother Simon Munro, received what property he bequeathed. He belonged to the 78th Colonial Regiment, as will be shown by the record, from the records of the State of Georgia quoted below"

"Read a petition of Lieutenant Harry Munro, setting forth that being entitled under His Majesty's Royal Proclamation to two thousand acres of land as a reduced Officer in the 78th Regiment, he did lately obtain an order for laying out one thousand acres, then of praying for one thousand more upon the south side of the Altamaha River, about a mile below Barrington"

"Barrington was not far from Sunbury, one of the dead towns of Georgia, and where his sister-in-law Elizabeth West, wife of his brother Simon Munro died in 1807.

9. SIMON MUNRO (my great-great grandfather) Born in 1741, at Inverness, died 1790 at "NOVAR PLANTATION" St. John's Parish, Georgia. (now Liberty County)

He was a Colonel in the 78th Colonial Regiment and married (Marriage Contract of 1768) Elizabeth West Born 1750 Died 1807, the daughter of Charles West, Esq. of "Westfield Plantation" (which adjoined the grant of Simon Munro, which he called "Novar") Baptized in Old St. Philip's Church, at Charleston South Carolina, in 1720. He died at "Westfield" in 1766, or 1768. He removed to St. John's Parish Georgia, in 1748, and obtained from King George II. in that year a large grant of land comprising many thousand acres on "BINE SWAMP" in St. John's Parish. He was the son of Samuel West who came to Carolina, in 1669, in the Ship "Carolina" one of a fleet of three vessels sent out by King Charles II. and commanded by Joseph West, later created a LANDGRAVE, and GOVERNOR OF CAROLINA, who was probably his brother. They landed at Port Royal, and there held the first election on Carolina soil. Samuel West was chosen one of a Council of five, and afterwards a member of the first Parliament under Locke's Constitution, and a member from the Commons of the Grand Council, and was one of the few who had a grant of land (Lot Thirty-One) in the New Town of "CHARLESTON" so that Charles West of "Westfield" was a Nephew of one of the Early Landgraves of Carolina.

SIMON MUNRO was an avowed "LOYALIST" during the American Revolution, and returned to Inverness, with his son Harry Munro, whom he placed at the Royal Acade

Of Inverness to be educated, and who died shortly after the Revolution, upon his return to Georgia, of yellow fever, while visiting his mother at Sunbury.

The large estates of Simon Munro were confiscated, and he was not permitted to land in Georgia, upon his return from Scotland, as will be shown from the "Minutes and Petitions of the Georgia State Records, quoted below

"Resolved that this board cannot permit Simon Munro, Esq. to land and come on shore, as prayed for by his letter. Resolved, that Mrs. Munro, Mrs. Young, and Mrs. Trenfield, have permission to go down and return with the land Commissioners, from the State, and that Mrs. Jemima Love, her son, and Miss Anne Martin, have leave to depart, this State not to return again, in "The Flag of Truce" * for St. Augustine" Minutes of the Executive Council, October 7th 1778.

* presumably a boat

"From Sundry persons of the "County of Liberty, Praying that Simon Munro, Esq. a person whose estates is confiscated and himself ordered off this State be received and admitted to the rights of Citizenship" The Committee are of the opinion that the prayer of the said petitioner cannot be granted, which was agreed too. July. 1782.

"Petition of Mrs. Elizabeth Munro, praying that her husband Simon Munro might be permitted to return and live with her " July 8th. 1783.

"Mrs. Elizabeth Munro, praying her husband Simon Munro may be admitted a Citizen of this State " Resolved, the prayer of said petition be not granted July 24th. 1783.

SIMON MUNRO, eventually landed in Florida, which at that time belonged to The Kingdom of Spain, and from there he walked over the border into "Georgia" and there he stayed, dying some five years later at "NOVAR" this large Plantation is now known as the Foster Plantation, or "Bacon Place" and there he and his wife Elizabeth West who survived until 1807, are buried in the old Plantation Cemetery the tombstones, long marble slabs on bricked graves, now fallen to ruin, as it is a most inaccessible spot to reach from the main road.

His Estates were restored---eventually- (after another North American Racket I suppose, even in those far off days) to his three daughters, Viz.

Descended from the marriage of Jeanne Gallaudet (or Galodet) who was a sister of my grandmother's (Margaret Gallaudet Erwin's) great-great grandfather Dr. Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, who came to New Rochelle in 1711 and Jacob Pillot Seigneur de ANDREW P. PILLOT. "Beaureteur"

The flag of the New York Cotton Exchange was displayed at half-mast yesterday as a tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Andrew P. Pillot, one of the oldest cotton merchants in this city, and at one time a very wealthy and prominent merchant and banker. Mr. Pillot was born in France in 1796, and was therefore in his eighty-fourth year at the time of his death. He was a soldier under Napoleon, and served in two campaigns as a corporal in the army of the great commander. He came to this country about forty years ago and settled at Charleston, S.C., where he subsequently embarked in the cotton business. About five years afterward Mr. Pillot removed to New York and assisted in the establishment of the house of Pillot & La Barbie, bankers, merchants and dealers in exchange, at No. 67 Beaver Street. The firm was very successful and became wealthy and prominent in the business of controlling consignments of cotton by accepting the bills of Southern shippers. They were among the first to establish the cotton trade between New York, Liverpool and Havre. The firm remained in business for many years, and after dissolution Mr. Pillot continued to trade for his own account. After a short time, however, he took his two eldest sons into partnership with him, the style of the firm being A. P. Pillot & Sons. Mr. Pillot became one of the wealthiest merchants in New York and purchased a tract of 140 acres of very valuable land near Orange, N.J., where he built a magnificent seat. His park and gardens, and the embellishments of his house and grounds, made his place one of the finest in this part of the country. Mr. Pillot entertained handsomely and his wine cellar became famous for his choice selection. He was highly respected among his business associates. He was for many years a director of the Bank of America and ex-trustee of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company.

At the close of the late war Mr. Pillot, like many others, was ruined by the sudden decline in cotton. His business was swept away, and within a few months he lost over $500,000. He never recovered, commercially, from the effects of the failure. He has carried on business since, however, with one of his sons, at No. 52 Exchange Place, in a comparatively small way. His creditors and business friends had such respect for him that he was enabled to live at his handsome seat, in Orange, with his wife and daughter, and it was here that his death occurred on Saturday. His widow and four children survive him - three sons and a daughter. His eldest son married the granddaughter of Peter Stuyvesant, and one of his daughters - now deceased - was the wife of Mr. Paul Thebaud, of the importing house of Thebaud Brothers, of Broad Street.

Bruxelles, le 15 décembre 1956

Bien cher cousin.

Comme chaque année, pour ne pas rompre avec cette belle tradition, je vous vous présenter mes vœux bien sincères de santé et de bonheur.

Je vous espère d'ailleurs en parfaites conditions physiques malgré les prémisses de l'hiver. Récemment, en dînant au wagon-restaurant entre BRUXELLES et PARIS, j'ai fait la connaissance d'un ménage Américain qui n'habite pas loin de chez vous: LEO STRAUSS 115-25 Metropolitan Ave. - Kew Gardens 15 - L.I. Il est importateur de lingerie fine.

Je ne me rappelle plus si je vous avais dit dans mon dernier courrier que je pensais partir pour l'île Sainte Hélène en qualité de Consul de France et de Conservateur des Sites Nationaux, notamment de l'habitation qui occupa l'Empereur NAPOLEON, maison transformée en musée. Malheureusement, l'Administration me préfère un autre candidat.

Depuis un an, j'ai quitté les NOIRS CARIBONIENS - Nous partageons notre temps entre PARIS et BRUXELLES, à la recherche d'une situation. Mais c'est une difficile espérance. Je connais cependant énormément de personnes qui n'ont pas.

Vous ne m'avez jamais envoyé votre génalogie et je le regrette. Je vois que vous ne sommes pas d'accord sur les noms des pères et mères de l'année GALAUDET. J'ai une copie intégrale de son acte de mariage avec JACQUE PILLOT, surnom de BEAURETOUR. J'ai même rédigé une très longue correspondance avec l'Archiviste à ce sujet et des lettres sur le sujet des familles GALAUDET et RINGELÉ.

Quand pensez-vous venir en Europe? Ma femme et moi nous nous réjouissons à faire votre connaissance. Vous êtes célibataire et vous êtes en situation financière satisfaisante. Vous êtes vraiment indépendant.

J'ai de temps en temps des nouvelles de cousin Georges PILLOT, de MONTMORILLON. J'attends une lettre de lui ces prochains jours. Il a ou été très inquiet au sujet de son second fils et de sa famille. Instancé depuis plusieurs années déjà en France, nous n'avons rien. Les migrants qui s'y sont déroulés n'ont pu qu'ajouter des soucis.

Veuillez, je vous prie, noter mon changement d'adresse.

En vous renouvelant tous nos souhaits, je vous prie d'être assuré, si vous en avez, de nos sentiments très affectueux.

Votre cousin

G. Pillot - Beauretour

P.S.: Avec nos vœux des nouvelles de cousin André PILLOT? Il ne donne jamais de ses nouvelles. Elles sont les dernières fois que vous voyez écrits? Et en ce moment, vous êtes...

suite

Bien cher Cousin,

Le facteur me remit vos vœux juste au moment où j'allais poster les miens. Je m'excuse du retard apporté à vous remercier ainsi que ma Femme de vos bons souhaits et j'en profite pour compléter vos renseignements sur mes liens de parenté qui m'unissent à Jacob PILLOT, sieur de BEAURETOUR et à Jeanne GALLAUDET, ainsi ~~xxx~~ d'ailleurs que la filiation de notre cousin Georges PILLOT, brasserie du Montmorillon à SAULGE (Vienne). Je descends en ligne directe de primogéniture évidemment de l'aîné, ce qui explique que mon nom soit complété par celui de BEAURETOUR, tandis que le cousin Georges de SAULGE a pour ancêtre le second fils qui, apparemment, n'avait pas le droit au BEAURETOUR final. Contrairement à ce que vous avez recueilli, Jacob PILLOT de BEAURETOUR et Jeanne GALLAUDET eurent non pas 5 mais bien 11 enfants dont beaucoup moururent en bas-âge.

Jacob PILLOT, sieur de BEAURETOUR, né en 1659, décédé le 7 mai 1720, marié le 20 août 1684 à Jeanne GALLAUDET, née en 1658.

Ils eurent 11 enfants:

A/- Jacob, né en 1685 (dont je descends) dcd le 1er septembre 1761.

B/- Annibal-Thomas, né le 21 septembre 1687 (dont descend Georges PILLOT, brasserie du Montmorillon à SAULGE (Vienne) dcd le 31 mars 1758.

C/- Jeanne, née le 10 avril 1689, dcd le 4 septembre 1689.

D/- Jean-Charles, né le 24 avril 1690, dcd le 17 décembre 1691.

E/- Marie-Anne, née le 5 janvier 1692, dcd le 24 mai 1692.

F/- Henri, né le 5 juillet 1693, dcd le 14 septembre 1693.

G/- Jeanne-Elisabeth, née le 29 avril 1696, dcd le 13 octobre 1778.

H/- Jeanne-Elisabeth, née le ? , dcd en 1725.

I/- François-Jean, né le 12 mai 1698, dcd le 18 décembre 1700.

J/- Benoiste-Bénigne, née le 1er septembre 1700, dcd le ? .

K/- Marie-Pia, née le 5 octobre 1702, dcd le ? .

Contrairement à ce qu'écrivit Louis RIVIERE dans son livre " La famille RIVIERE de Mauzé et La Rochelle et les familles alliées ", Jeanne GALLAUDET est bien la fille de Thomas GALLAUDET et de Léa RINGLER et non d'ISAAC GALLAUDET et de Marie JOUSSEAUME.

Dans la courte note généalogique que vous m'avez envoyée dans votre lettre du 30 avril 1950, vous écriviez que Jeanne GALLAUDET avait pour parents Josué GALLAUDET et Marie JOUSSEAUME.

Dans la famille GALLAUDET, il y a bien une autre Jeanne à ma connaissance qui aurait eu pour père Josué GALLAUDET et pour mère Marguerite PRIOLEAU. Cette Jeanne GALLAUDET épousa François GUIONNET. Elle avait au moins deux frères Pierre-Josué et Olivier-Josué.

Dans votre lettre du 29 septembre 1950, vous m'écriviez: " I had written a typed brochure of the " PRIOLEAU " family but had never had it printed as there are so few of the family left who would be interested in it ". Si vous avez pris la précaution de faire des doubles ou des copies grâce au papier carbone, auriez-vous l'obligeance de m'envoyer un exemplaire de votre travail que je promets de vous retourner après que j'en aurais pris connaissance ? Ceci m'intéresse prodigieusement et je regrette d'ailleurs de ne pas être suffisamment fortuné pour me consacrer à ces recherches familiales.

Avec beaucoup de patience et un coup de chance, j'ai retrouvé:

1°.- Un château de BEAURETOUR du XIVème siècle, en ruine, dans les Alpes.

2°.- des documents sur " veau " mentionnant le nom de PILLOT et datés de 1318. Pour l'instant je n'ai pas encore pu raccrocher ces documents à un mem

bre quelconque de ma famille. Il me faudrait me rendre moi-même dans de nombreuses préfectures et faire des recherches dans les Archives départementales.

Vous me feriez un plaisir infini en me faisant recopier tous les renseignements que vous avez (ceux contrôlés et indiscutables et les autres plus incertains).

Enfin, nous espérons avoir la grande joie de faire votre connaissance dans quelques mois, car il n'y aura pas une troisième guerre mondiale et maintenant le conflit égyptien est éteint. Par ailleurs, je cherche actuellement à obtenir un poste à l'O.N.U.. Ceci me procurerait sans doute la possibilité d'aller vous rendre visite chez vous et de connaître les U.S.A.; Mais entre le désir et la réalité, il y a aussi loin que de la coupe aux lèvres, n'est-ce pas ?

En vous renouvelant tous nos souhaits bien sincères pour 1957, en réitérant nos remerciements pour les vôtres, nous vous adressons, bien cher Cousin, l'assurance de nos sentiments les meilleurs et affectueux.

Votre Cousin

BY

JOHN D. COOPER

AND

ROBERT H. FORT

Nov. 11th 1952

My dear Robert,

you probably wonder what happened with me since there is such a long time I did not send you any news - when I received your letter at the end of March I was hoping to have the opportunity of another trip to the United States so I waited and delayed my letter to you until I knew exactly what was going to happen - In fact the news did not come and then ~~I~~ I was busy with my work and also busy expecting that baby - Yes, I could not imagine how many errands and how much shopping it takes to prepare the coming of a baby in a home!

You wrote me such a long and interesting letter that I wanted time enough to contemplate and answer it - I translated it into French and sent it to my father who is very glad to have it - He can read a little English but not well enough to get all the facts from a letter -

I received your September letter just coming back to Paris after having been very tired and sick with some liver troubles - Now everything is all right with me, the babe

and Simone are fine, too -
And you? I hope you continue feeling strong and in good health -

I am glad you were interested with the data I sent you on the Pillot family which I copied from Riviere's book -
This H. Riviere was a man of my grand'father's generation and he sent it to my grandfather with his compliments - Now,
my father has it with the family's papers
but it is a sort of mimeograph type of book, not printed and I am not surprised you never saw it - My father is afraid to lose it and does not want to mail it to any one but, when you come over here, he will be glad to show and lend it to you -

When you have finished the typing of the genealogical tree, we shall be very glad indeed to get a copy of it and thank you in advance -

You are right when you say that all these Pillots who held official positions under the monarchy could not have been protestants -

You remember that the "Révocation de l'Edit de Nantes" by Louis XIV. was in ~~1685~~ 1685 and my father always

I have
two of them -
* Two of them
are his wife and I have just found
some pictures
of Simon and myself, the other is of my father
and you may like to have them.

5
told me that, at that moment,
all the Pillots who were protestants,
either became catholics or went away
out of France to England, Holland or America - Jacob Thomas Pillot (1711-1784) Jacob Pillot (1685-1752) and others were certainly catholics -

I have no enlargement* of our wedding pictures at hand ~~now~~ now and I don't want to delay my letter but I promise
you to have some made and then I shall send them over - I'll have to get hold of the negative "cliche" from the friend who made it -

The church where we were married is what remains of the old abbey of CLUSSAIS, 30 kilometers south west of Poitiers - I shall collect some information from my father in law - I think this abbey was built in the XII or XIIIth century and was related to the abbey of Lequerc
which you know very well -

I thank you very much for the present
you want to give us - My friend and business partner (you know I am a Consultant Management Engineer) is now in Mexico and is supposed to stop in New York on his way back in December.

His name is André Pons and I shall write him to go and visit you -

The family of my wife, the MASSELOUX
is an old family of the Poitou - I understand they were quite rich as landowners but they have lost ~~most~~ all their fortune,
the last strike of fate was the German occupation of the family's little "château".
The Germans took away with them every piece of silverware and all the "objets d'art" - My father in law had a beautiful collection of Japanese China and ivory figures which was all lost - That is a great pity -
Their name must have been spelt
"Masse-toup" in older days for they have a crest of arms with a "masse" (mediæval arm in form of hammer) and a wolf which you know is "Loup" in French -
She is very nice, she is three years younger than I am and we love each other very much -

10

Although I cannot give you answers to all your questions now, I shall do my best and make a mark on those which are not answered so that I can make inquiries -

you have the address of ~~the~~ Eugene de Boyrie in Philadelphia, don't you?

Eugene de Boyrie, 5821 Cedarhurst Street, Philadelphia, Pa - He is an Engineer -

- 1 - My father's present wife was born in 1886 and her name is Marcelle - She was first cousin to my mother and her family name is BUNEL, as my mother's -
I send you a picture of her with my father taken on our wedding day -
- 2 - The name I read on page 2 is VERLAINE (with a v) KMENEUR which sounds as a name from Brittany and may be found spelt somewhere else KEMNEUR, as you suggest, it sounds better your way, anyway -
- 3 - I need the book of Review, shall answer later
- 4 - Shall ask my father, am not sure he knows

would like to very much - we live in Paris but it is possible that some day we shall have to spend part of our time at La Brasserie - You know that this brewery was founded by my great grand father Jules Buland, father of my grand father Maurice Pillot - Ever since the business has been owned and managed by the family - My father owns one fourth of it,
the three other fourths being owned respectively
by Jacques Baufier (son of Helene Pillot), by Marguerite Baufier ^{and children} (born Pillot) and by Jeanne Sotias (born Pillot) and her husband Now we are going into trouble = out of the four original men coming after my grand-father
one is dead = Henry Baufier and his heirs are quarrelling over the ways of distributing the heritage - The second oldest, Maurice Sotias is about 74 and wants to retire,
the youngest Jacques Baufier is only 53
but had heart attacks and wants to retire ~~so~~ so, only my father (67) is left - Everything would be fine but my uncles and cousins would like my father or myself buy their shares - of course we would like very much to do so because we think it is our duty to keep that business to the Pillet family (undenably the Brewery will be 100 years old in 1954) - If we don't buy their shares they will be allowed to sell them to Strafers - The trouble is we don't have the money right now - You know that the French money was devaluated 20 times between 1938 and now so it is quite difficult for us to self-finance proper maintenance and the buying of modern equipment -

I am very sorry for that, I know what should be done because I studied Management techniques in France and in the States and my job is precisely to give others advice on that subject. My father would like me to join him now but I feel guilty not being able to bring him any thing else than my brains and good will, La Brasserie needs more than that, it needs money to make new investments in machinery - without that "new blood" injection I am afraid we won't prevent it from passing out slowly —

we expect to go to "LA POMMERAIÉ", Simone father's home for Christmas and to La Brasserie for New Year — when we are at La Pommeraié we won't be very far away from Mangé, as the place is only 40 kilometers from Niort, and we shall try to find time to go and pay a visit to docteur Clochard, whom I never met and also to find out
~~the~~ about that Seigneurie de Rivrenières.

In case you are not at Forest Hills,
I address this letter c/o Mc Alfie —
I shall mail the three photographs accompanying in separate envelope through ordinary mail, as it is thicker and does not fit in my envelopes I have at hand —

Hoping this letter will find you in good health and hoping also that you forgive me for being so late, Simone joins me to send you our very best souvenir

Sincerely yours Maurice

Dear Mrs. Hynson:

Reading again, carefully, your original paper, you mention the New York Genealogical and Bibliographical Society as the first place for records appropriate for our service ratings. Would you rather I sent further family and stories of these Munro and allied families directly there - Yesterday having nothing better to do (I was in Court) I read again, of the continued work the Mormans are doing, and regreted that I had not written them of the great amount of material, going back in some instances to ancient Europe & some people like to know of their ancient lineage, they would probably have taken some of the genealogical packages - (stacks of it) off my hands - which I had to dispose of without thinking only of appropriate material for the Dames --

Some years ago when I was in the local probate court and the town clerks office a genealogical expert from their headquarters came to Farmington spending the necessary time here to photo-stat all of our records - back to 1645 -

These papers which were sort of thrust upon me and just stacks of information - but I do hesitate to enforce them on you unless you can have them carefully scanned and find them appropriate - so far I have found them to be very valuable along many lines, including our own.

Among Robert Erwin's ancestors is the Gleason line, who built one of our oldest houses, the Gleason House 1655-60 on Main Street -

This work is just beyond price - and I am so happy to be doing it - Fondly W. H. S.

I have discovered the following books on sale at Leary's Old Book Store, Ninth Street below Market. Some of these contain information which might be of assistance to you in searching out the history of the Erwin Family. I give the names and the dates of publication, together with price in case you wish to purchase them. Only wish I could afford to do so.

Paxton's Philadelphia Directory and Advertiser 1819 $2.50
(a very old fashioned book, and interesting on account of its age, if for no other reason.)

DeSilver's Philadelphia Directory, 1833--$.50

Another interesting old book, and very quaint in its style. Both of these contain the names of a lot of the Erwin Family, but it is a curious fact that the name is spelled in four different ways, namely Arwine, Erwin, Irvine and Irwin. The names and occupations are given, and it is a curious fact that all the James and Johns are carpenters, while the Roberts and Williams are given as "Gentleman." Evidently therefore, in looking up the history of the family it will be necessary to look for the name spelled in all these various ways.

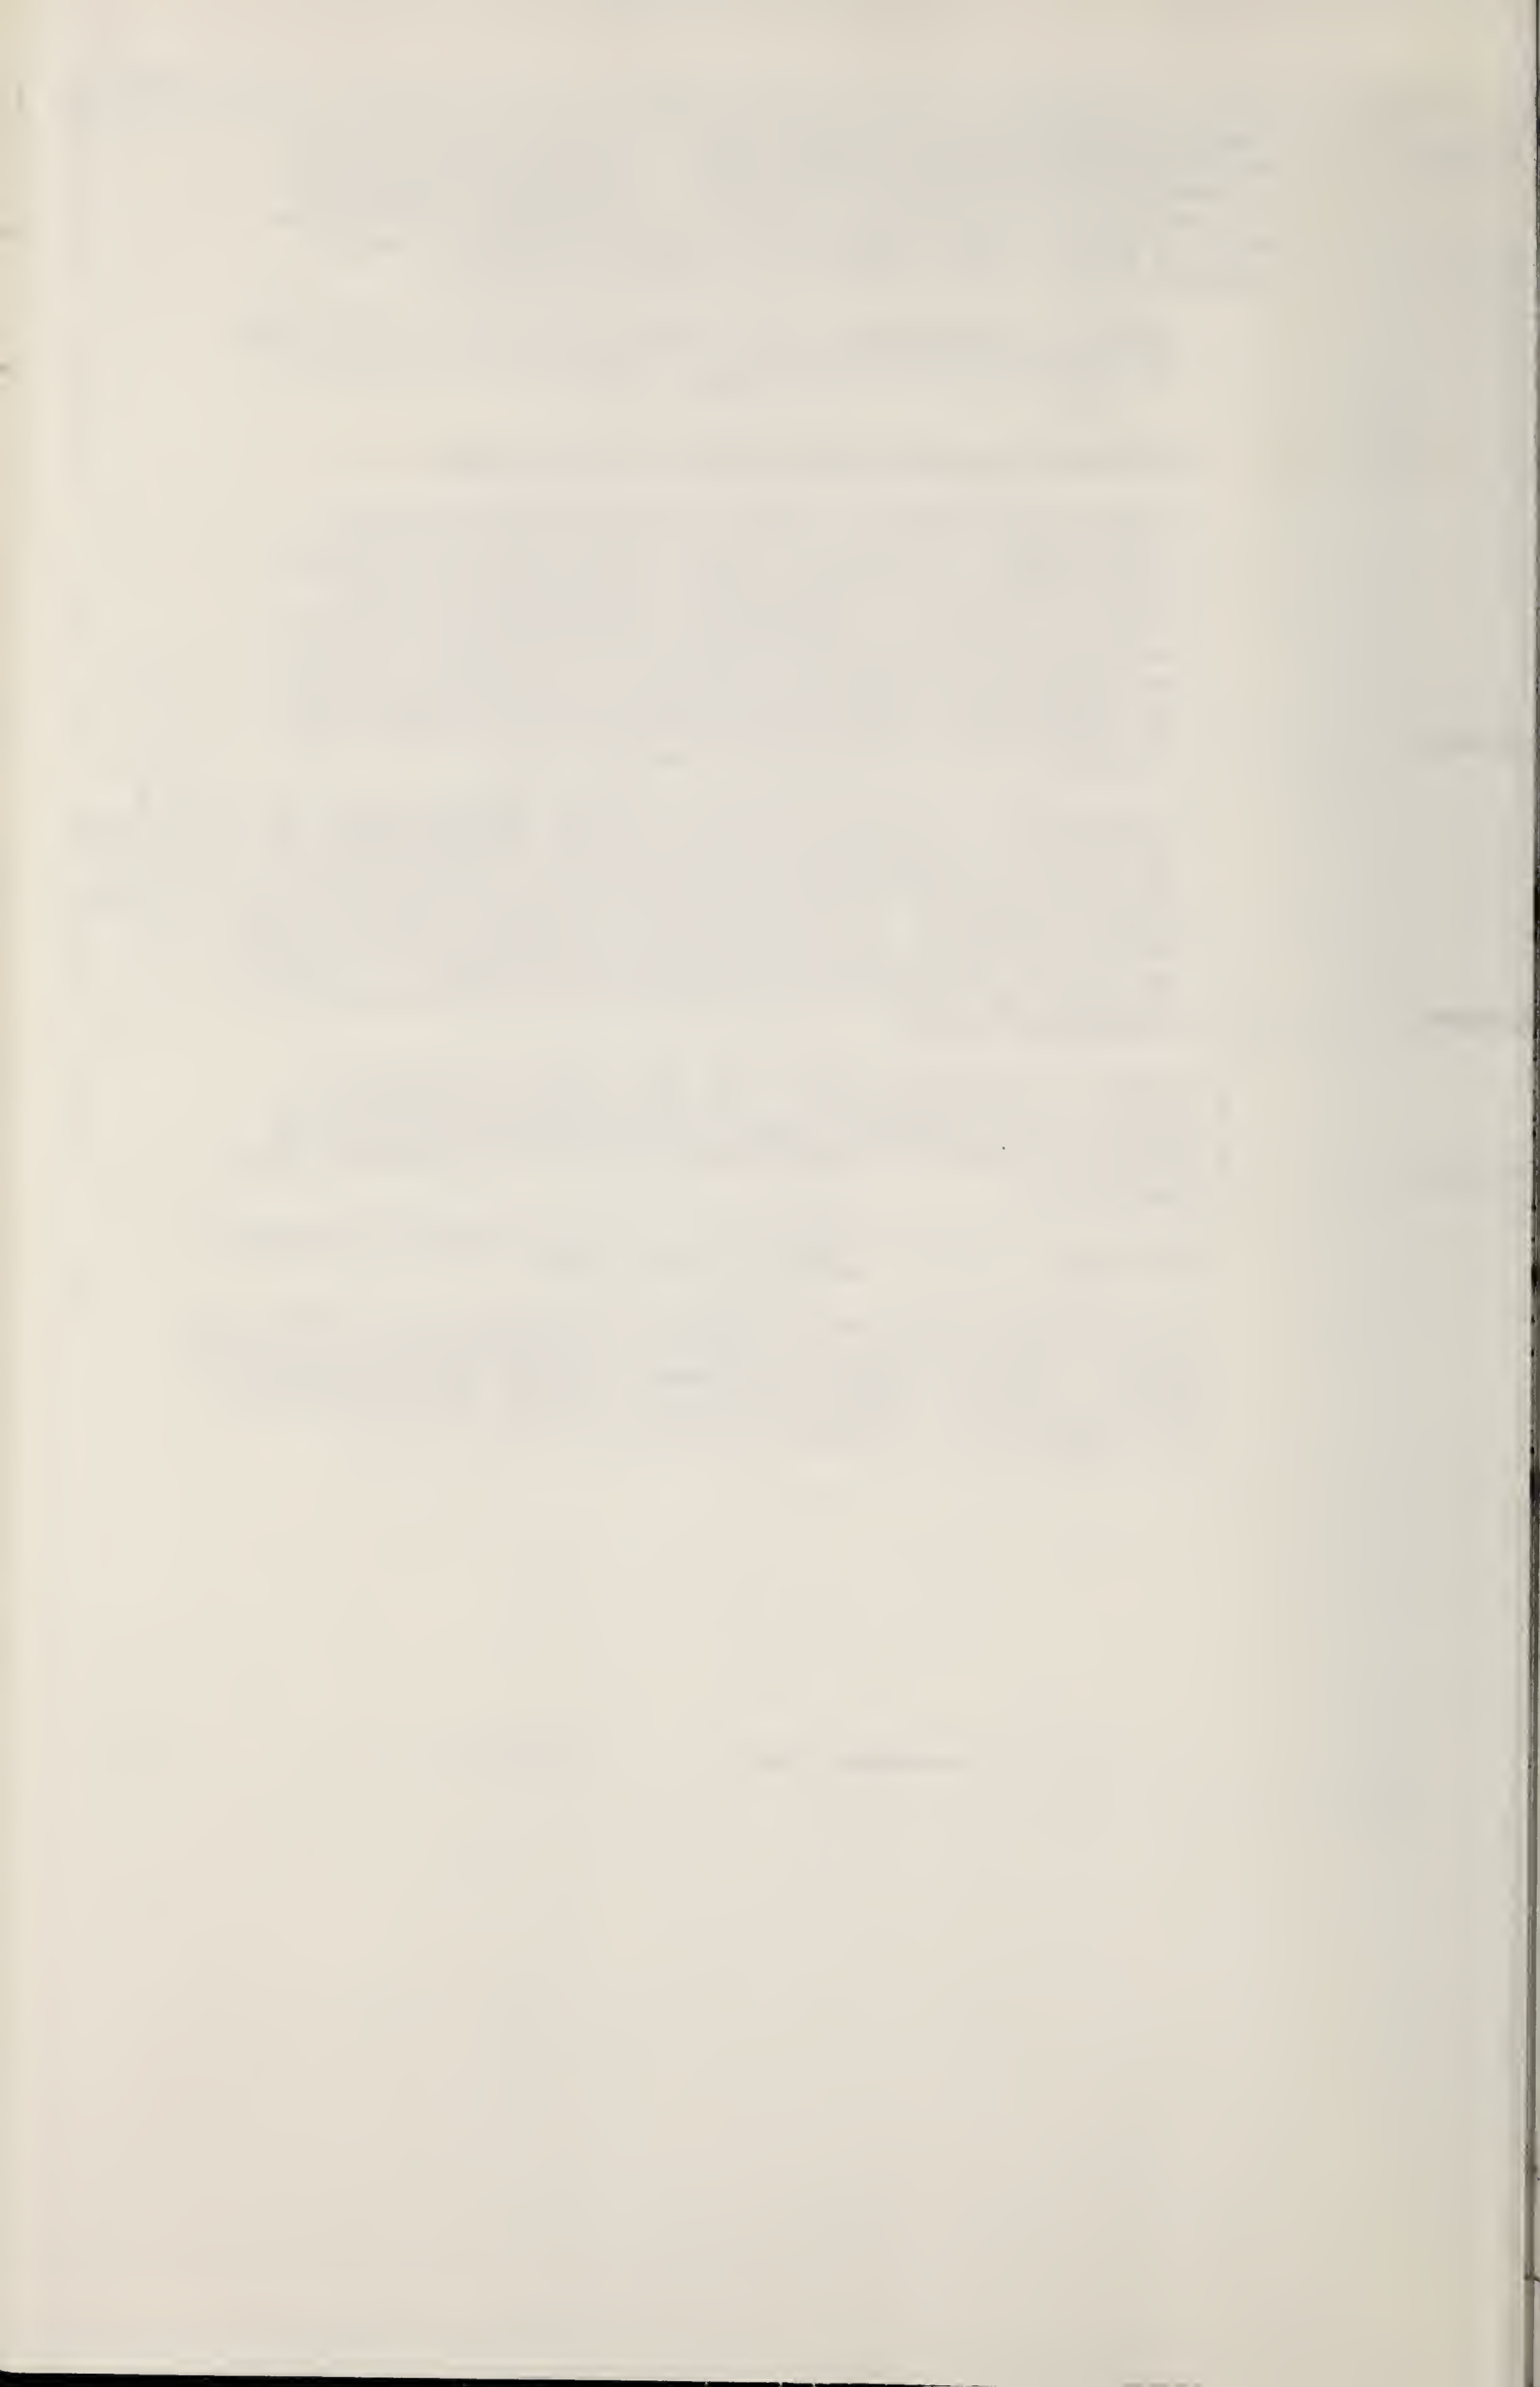

I found also a "History of Bucks County," by Gen. W. W. H. Davis (forgot the date) priced at $5.00, which in all probability contains some information you are looking for. One item I found was the history of the founding of the town of Erwinna. It was started by Joseph Erwin and was named after him. He was the first postmaster, and I think was in all probability my Grandfather's father, as I know his name was Joseph, and I think he came from Bucks to Montgomery County.

3 volumes
5.00 each

Another book which might be of use to you is Martin's History of Chester County, --$2.00, which contains a brief account of an Irishman named John Irwin who came over to Chester in 1709 or around that date--I do not remember the exact date.

Erwinna is on the Delaware river, almost opposite Frenchtown, New Jersey, on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

"Philadelphia Archives," in about four volumes, I think, will also be of use to you, but I do not know where they can be obtained. Leary's have two volumes, I think, but the price of each volume is, I think, $2.00, and I doubt if you could get the complete set, although you might be able to do so.
